It's a dark day when the sun doesn't shine.

When you are about to spit on the sidewalk or in any conspicuous public place, remember the Johnstown flood.

Show us the man who tackles his job with a smile and we'll show you the man who stands a good chance of getting a desk next to the Big Boss in the front office.

If the appetite of a man were as such as that of a sparrow, in proportion to his size, he would eat a whole sheep at one sitting.—Exchange.

Then, in these days of high cost of living, let us thank the Lord that the sparrow has the appetite.

Eight hundred thousand deaths from tuberculosis in the last four years. During the four years of the civil war the deaths were 350,000, which shows conclusively that the former is far more costly than the latter.

There is a man who never drinks, Nor smokes, nor chews nor swears.

Who never gambles, never flirts,
And shuns all sinful snares.
He's paralyzed!

A RENOWNED judge has declared that a father has a right to lick a young man who attempts to elope with his daughter. He may have the right, but he doesn't always have the strength. Young men generally feel pretty husky about that time.

The merger of all the rating establishments of the island with a capital of $5,000,000 is being planned. THE GARDEN ISLAND has always been violently opposed to trusts, but of course if it could get in on this deal, it might cause its violence to subside somewhat.

AN exchange says that a Denver man slipped on an icy pavement the other day and almost bit his tongue off. It is a great pity that we can't have some slippery pavements, too, then some of our scandal gossips might be benefitted by the Denver man's misfortune—the community would, at least, get temporary relief.

THE Maui News takes a fall out of the new parcels post system, but not withstanding this fact, the new rule is becoming quite popular and the public is patronizing it liberally. It is going to prove very beneficial to the smaller stores in each section. The mail order houses will not be benefitted a very great distance from home, as it will be more expensive than express at that distance. It is up to every store to use it in their respective territories. It is a system that the United States should have had in operation many years ago.

THE GARDEN ISLAND is in receipt of the following choice specimen of English from Solomon M. Assael, a commission agent at Solonica Turkey, under date of Dec. 2, 1912.

GENTLEMEN desiring to subscribe myself in your esteemed paper, you will oblige yourself if you will send me a specimens of your honorable paper with tariff per return.

The specimen has been sent and we hope that the G. I. will have a circulation in Turkey, altho' we would prefer to have Turkey circulate near us.

THE food of the masses in Berlin, Germany, it would appear from reports, because of exorbitant prices demanded for beef, is dog meat. There is a regular dog slaughter house in that city, and so great is the demand for this meat that it is said the owner finds himself at a loss how to keep up the supply for the ever increasing demand. Beef may be high in this country, but, thank goodness, the working people are getting wages that enable them to purchase beef and not be compelled to eat dog and horse meat like their fellow laborers in Germany and France. This should be a strong object lesson to those who would put the wages of the workmen of America on a par with those of Europe by making severe cuts in the Tariff schedule.

COLUMNS of sarcasm has been the portion of the members of the decomposed Board of Supervisors of Honolulu. There are two great causes which bring disgrace to public officials. One is the feeling that one official has got to be a "good fellow." Another is that his family "must maintain their station in life." It costs a lot of money to be a good fellow to the public, or to maintain a station in life, if you have the money to spend. If you haven't the money you must get it somehow. For this condition, the public itself is to blame. The public official who is not what is popularly termed "a good fellow," or whose family does "not keep up appearances," gets small respect from the public, no matter how faithful and competent that official may be. It is true that the public's attitude in such matters arise from ignorance and thoughtlessness. Education is needed along this line, but so long as the institutions which are supposed to foster a healthy public sentiment, seek to profit by the extravagance of public men, the outlook for better things is not very encouraging.

THE Lihue ball team for the coming series is getting into shape. A dark horse is secretly spoken of as a great pitcher. He is said to be on the ground but no one seems willing to say who he is. Let us hope that he is really on the ground and not "in the air"—as Lihue's team generally is.

SUCCESS

When we secured the services of Hartwig Hard-ers—master brewer of one of the most famous mainland breweries—we did so with the determination of making our beer the equal of that brewed anywhere. And in this we have succeeded beyond our greatest expectations. Our
